ABOUT ME

My Background

Sherri J. Tenpenny, DO, AOBEM(95-06), AOBNMM, ABIHM

Dr Sherri Tenpenny is an osteopathic medical doctor, board certified in neuromusculoskeletal medicine. In addition, she has a proficiency certification in Integrative Medicine. Widely regarded as the most knowledgeable and outspoken physician on the adverse impact that vaccines can have on health, Dr. Tenpenny has been a guest on hundreds of radio and national television programs (including the Dr. Oz Show, DayStar TV and the Today Show Australia). She has lectured at Cleveland State University and Case Western Reserve Medical School, and has been a speaker at conventions, both nationally and internationally, as a recognized expert on a wide range topics within the field of Integrative Medicine including breast health, breast thermography, women's hormones, medical uses of iodine and the adverse effects vaccines have on health.

Dr. Tenpenny is the author of several books, including best seller, 'Saying No To Vaccines' (pub. 2008, currently out of print). She is contributing author for several other books including 'Textbook of Food and Nutrients in Disease Management'.
Her articles for magazines have been published in over 15 languages around the world.

She was board certified in Emergency medicine and worked as a full-time Emergency Medicine physician and Director of a Level II Trauma center from 1986 to 1998. She is the founder of Tenpenny Integrative Medical Center, a medical clinic located near Cleveland, Ohio. Opened in 1996, her company provides a natural, holistic approach to getting well and off prescription medications. Her approaches have attracted patients from all 50 states and at least 17 countries.

Dr. Tenpenny has invested 20+ years and far more than 40,000 hours researching, documenting and exposing the problems associated with vaccines. As an internationally known speaker and author, her many articles have been translated into at least 12 languages. She is a frequent guest on radio and TV to share her knowledge and educate parents on why they should just say no to vaccines.

Currently, she attends to patients two days per week at Tenpenny Integrative Medical Center, located in Cleveland, Ohio, where patients from nearly all 50 states and 17 countries have gotten well using a combination of conventional and holistic therapies.
